The Tennessee Real Estate Commission Wishes You a Prosperous 2011!

RECIPROCITY

Reciprocity is an agreement between two states that allows licensees the privilege of not taking a licensing exam. Tennessee currently has written reciprocal agreements with Arkansas, Connecticut, Georgia, Iowa, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Dakota, Virginia, and West Virginia. If you are licensed in one of these states, then you may apply for a Tennessee Real Estate License. An applicant will need to provide a Certified License History from the state the licensee holds or has held a real estate license. The States of Florida and New Hampshire have Limited Reciprocity with Tennessee. A licensee applying for a Tennessee license from these states must pass the Tennessee portion of the examination and also provide a Certified License History.

If an applicant resides in a state that does not have a reciprocal agreement with Tennessee and did not test for their license, then a test must be taken. It is important to mention that a licensee can not apply using reciprocity and enter a retired status with TREC. The licensee must also affiliate with a firm that has a Tennessee license and reside within (50) miles of the firm.

Commissioner Haynes Graduates from Commissioner College

Michelle Haynes, Commissioner

Commissioner Michelle Haynes has graduated from the ARELLO (Association of Real Estate License Law Officials) Commissioner College. Developed by ARELLO's Commission Member Resource Committee, the Commissioner College is an exclusive program that is designed to prepare newly appointed/elected individuals for their unique role as regulatory decision-makers and also serves as a valuable refresher course for veteran regulators. Congratulations to Commissioner Haynes!

Home Offices

The Official Manual of the Tennessee Real Estate Commission addresses the issue of home offices in § 62-13-309, Business Locations. For a firm and broker to be compliant with the law, "each office shall have a real estate firm license, principal broker, and a fixed location with adequate facilities for affiliated licensees, located to conform with zoning laws and ordinances." Not only does local zoning have jurisdiction over an office location but the signage that is to be placed on the outside of the broker's office as well. This sign must state that the broker is engaged in the real estate business. The office located within the broker's home must also have a sign outside of the house. Upon application for a license or for a location change, a signed letter in writing from the local zoning authority must accompany the application.

COMMISSION POLICY STATEMENT
NUMBER: 2010-CPS-003
EFFECTIVE DATE: December 1, 2010

POLICY ON LAPSED E&O INSURANCE

Each licensee licensed by the Tennessee Real Estate Commission is required by TENN. CODE ANN. § 62-13-112 to carry errors and omissions insurance as a condition to licensing. The Commission adopts the following policy for failure to maintain errors and omissions insurance:

If a licensee fails to renew an errors and omissions insurance policy prior to expiration, that licensee may be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) per day for each day that licensee remains uninsured or other discipline including license suspension or revocation.

A Principal Broker who fails to ensure each affiliated licensee maintains errors and omissions insurance may be subject to civil penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per uninsured affiliated licensee. A Principal Broker may avoid penalty if he or she releases the uninsured affiliated licensee by submitting a completed TREC 1 form. The TREC 1 form must be received by the Commission prior to the 91st day after the expiration date of the uninsured affiliate broker's policy.

The names of all uninsured licensees will be published on the TREC website and in the TREC news journal. The list will include the names of all licensees uninsured as of the date of publication.

A licensee who late renews an errors and omissions policy may be subject to a lesser penalty or may not be subject to penalty, in the Commissions discretion, if the licensee obtains coverage back-dated to include the entire uninsured.

ADOPTED BY THE COMMISSION DECEMBER 1, 2010.

Chairman Isaac Northern

Executive Director Eve Maxwell

NOTIFICATION OF ADDRESS CHANGE

Have you recently moved?? If yes, then TREC needs to know!! It is important to notify TREC of your change of address. We need this information because a growing number of licensees are not in constant contact with their firm. The process is fast and easy and of course NO CHARGE! Go online to www.tn.gov/commerce/boards/trec/forms and download the Transfer, Release and Change of Status Form (TREC Form 1) and submit to us. We will update your file. Make sure to provide all your information including your license number.

TREC TIPS

- TREC CORE 2011/2012 is now (6) Hours
- The Code of Ethics is a requirement for the National Association of REALTORS® and your local REALTOR® Association, NOT The Tennessee Real Estate Commission.
- To check your education online, visit http://verify.tn.gov/
- Every licensee has their own personal expiry date
- You will owe (16) hours of CE every licensing period
- Office Broker Management is a pre-licensing course only
- TREC only recognizes an Active and Retired Status. Broker Release and Inactive are non-renewable license statuses.
- A licensee has (10) days to answer a complaint received by the Commission

In an effort to provide outstanding service to individuals who call the TREC office, all staff members are required to introduce themselves by name. When calling, please note the name of the staff person with whom you spoke, in case you need to contact that person again.
