INACTIVE APPLICATON

(Must be accompanied by $50 fee)

ACTIVE to INACTIVE

The fee for changing from active to inactive status is fifty dollars ($50). A check or money order for that amount must accompany this form made out to: State of Tennessee. Please note your license number on the check and application.

A licensee whose license is inactive may not directly or indirectly engage in or conduct, or advertise or claim to be engaging in or conducting the business, or acting in the capacity of a home inspector as defined in § 62-6-302, governing home inspectors in this state. No continuing education shall be required for renewal of an inactive license. Licensees holding an inactive license are not required to maintain general liability or errors and omissions insurance. Inactive licenses shall be renewed biannually.

AFFIDAVIT

Under § T.C.A. 62-6-307 (f) (1), I would request that my license be placed in an inactive status.

My current license number is_____. I understand that while my license is in an inactive status, I cannot conduct any home inspections. During this period of time, I shall not represent myself as a home inspector. I will pay renewal fees as appropriate.
