The Commonwealth Fund	The Fund’s Program Areas are: Health Care Delivery System Reform; Health Care Coverage and Access; Advancing Health Equity; Controlling Health Care Costs; Federal and State Health Policy; International Health Policy and Practice Innovations; Advancing Medicare; Tracking Health System Performance; Medicaid; Public Health, Behavioral Health; Climate Change and Healthcare.	https://www.commonwealthfund.org/	During fiscal year 2022–23, the average grant size was $157,276, with an average duration of 12 months.	To apply for a grant from the Commonwealth Fund, please submit a letter of inquiry (LOI) using the online grants portal. You can also read about the Fund’s current funding priorities. Applicants are typically advised of the results of their inquiries within six weeks, and often sooner. LOIs are accepted on a rolling basis, unless they are submitted in response to a request for proposals (RFP), in which case the submission deadline is shown on the funding announcement and the portal. If your LOI is identified as a potential fit, program staff will be in touch about next steps in our collaborative proposal development process. To view the Fund’s current funding priorities, please visit their website.

First Tennessee Foundation	Arts and culture, education and leadership, financial literacy, health and human services, and environment.	www.firsttennesseefoundation.com/	First Horizon Foundation is the private charitable foundation of First Horizon National Corporation. Founded in 1993 to serve the communities in which we operate, our Foundation has donated more than $100 million across our footprint.	Please visit the website to learn more about the annual grants process and how to apply.
The Frist Foundation	The Frist Foundation partners with agencies serving Davidson County residents in the following focus areas: Arts & Culture, Civic, Food Insecurities, Health Disparities, Human Services, Immigrants & Refugees, Nonprofit Infrastructure, and Unhoused Neighbors.	www.fristfoundation.org	Please visit the website for General Grant Recipients by Year.	The Frist Foundation reviews grants on an ongoing basis. Preference will be given to agencies focused on underserved communities and organizations impacting a large numbers of Nashvillians.
The Healing Trust	New strategic priorities are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Resilient Families</li> <li>• Thriving Communities</li> <li>• Strengthening Democracy</li> </ul>	http://healingtrust.org/	In 2023, we awarded 157 grants, totaling $4,628,435 to nonprofits in Middle Tennessee.	Prioritization will be given to nonprofits that are led by Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) first, followed by rural applicants, and then all other applicants that don't fall into those two groups. Applicants that don't fall into those two groups will be prioritized based on their organizational approach to equity. They will consider agencies using a fiscal agent on a case-by-case basis. National organizations must have a Tennessee-based board, separate financial statements (including a 990 or an audit), and must have programs that impact our geographic area. Counties served are: Bedford, Davidson, Maury, Montgomery, and Rutherford.

Vanderbilt University	The Center for Nonprofit Management and Vanderbilt University have established a partnership that allows a nonprofit executive, or senior staff member to attend the two-year Executive MBA program at Vanderbilt's Owen Graduate School of Management through a sponsorship worth approximately $100,000.	https://www.vanderbilt.edu/scholarships/	The approximately 250 recipients of these scholarships—one of our three signature scholarship programs—are guaranteed full-tuition awards plus summer stipends for study abroad, research or service projects.	Each year Vanderbilt awards merit-based scholarships to applicants who demonstrate exceptional accomplishment and intellectual promise. These students represent the top 1 percent of all freshman applicants to Vanderbilt, and with the limited number of merit scholarships available, the selection process is very competitive.  Please visit the website to learn more about Vanderbilt's scholarships.
