Trainer: Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training (MCTFT)

Description: Do You Know what Skittling Is? How About Tussing? Chances Are, One In Every 10 Teenagers Does. Recent research shows that while parents are aware of warnings against the dangers of illicit street drugs, both prescription medicine and over-the-counter (OTC) cough medicines are often overlooked as a potential threat. We'll hear from a mother whose son, now 22-years-old, is serving a 13-year prison sentence in Folsom State Prison for actions he took while under the influence. We'll also hear from a person who abused cough medicine and is now telling his story in hopes of preventing someone else from going down the same road. Also, see how CADCA and CHPA are joining forces to educate parents, engage coalitions and reduce this problem through education and policy change. Learn about efforts to designate and recognize August as National Medicine Abuse Awareness Month.
