Course Description

Business Communications is a course designed to develop students' effective oral and electronic business communications skills. This course develops skills in multiple methods of communications, including social media, as well as electronic publishing, design, layout, composition, and video conferencing. Upon completion of this course, proficient students will be able to demonstrate successful styles and methods for professional business communications using the proper tools to deliver effective publications and presentations.

Program of Study Application

This is the second course in the Business Management and Office Management programs of study. For more information on the benefits and requirements of implementing these programs in full, please visit the Business Management and Administration website at <https://tn.gov/education/article/cte-cluster-business-management-administration>.

Course Standards

Communication Components

- 1) Demonstrate compliance with the school's ethics policy regarding copyrighted materials, plagiarism, authenticity, proper citations, privacy, and proper use of technology resources.
- 2) Identify, analyze, and critique the basic components of communications, such as the message, the sender, the receiver, the mode, the noise, and the response. This includes conducting responsible research when necessary, developing effective arguments, composing meaningful and coherent messages appropriate to the intended audience, and polishing one's delivery skills to deliver an effective and credible message, followed by listening.
- 3) Differentiate between verbal and nonverbal communications when interacting with peers, subordinates, superiors, and customers. List specific techniques for effective communications and evaluate how different cultures and generations attach different meanings to various gestures, intonations, and other communications techniques.
- 4) Practice and implement proven communication techniques to foster positive interpersonal relationships in the business atmosphere, such as:
  - a. Establishing and maintaining positive relationships with coworkers and customers (e.g., being fair, helpful, tactful, gracious, and appreciative).
  - b. Recognize manifestations of tension, and employ recommended strategies to resolve the situation in the most favorable ways (e.g., collaborating, compromising, accommodating).
  - c. Practice various interactions and conflict resolution strategies by participating in role-play exercises and structured controversies, allowing students to model positive/supportive behaviors that respect varying perspectives and viewpoints of others and yield consensus decision-making.

Digital Citizenship

- 5) Create a rubric for evaluating and selecting the best electronic communication tool for a given task or situation. Using scenarios from business and industry, identify appropriate tools for various situations and defend selections through a persuasive narrative, based on the application of the rubric.
- 6) Research and analyze various aspects of good digital citizenship. In groups, discuss the effects of technology on day-to-day and business communications. Select one topic (such as hacking of a customer database, social media, etc.) for further exploration and develop an electronic presentation employing to demonstrate the implications of the topic on society, as well as business and industry.

- 7) Compile significant points regarding courtesy and propriety in a digital business world (“netiquette”) and prepare a presentation or web page that includes the topics of
  - a. Message priority (urgent, normal, or low)
  - b. Consent to share (property rights)
  - c. Confidential or sensitive information (privacy)
  - d. Message formatting (fonts, color, case, informal abbreviations, emoticons)

Business Writing

  - b. Using proper grammar essentials, including parts of speech, vocabulary, punctuation, sentence structure
  - c. Applying accepted business styles, including fonts, margins, layout, color, formats for dates, times, currencies, proper names
  - d. Using acceptable business language, vocabulary, acronyms
  - e. Writing for social media
  - f. Writing for the internet
- 9) Analyze examples of writing for evolving digital platforms such as social media applications. Compare and contrast writing conventions required for commonly used applications and construct an event announcement for a local business in formats appropriate for at least three different social media/networking tools.
- 10) Locate a website used by a business to sell a product or service. Evaluate the website’s design, content, text, images, layout, and color. Discern the site’s effectiveness and ease of navigation, including the use of hyperlinks. Using persuasive writing, produce a critique addressing the pros and cons of the site, and offer recommended revisions.

Desktop Publishing

- 11) Create, adjust, and publish business document projects to typographic standards:
  - a. Using word processing or desktop-publishing software
  - b. Planning layouts based on estimation and calculations to achieve accepted balance of text, art, photos, and white space
  - c. Applying consistent style standards, including fonts, margins, layout, color scheme, and image and text formats
  - d. Inserting and formatting merged graphic elements, such as charts, photos and artwork, and text embellishments
  - e. Incorporating editing and revision markings to incorporate desired changes by the author/editor

- 12) Configure and send typographic output for designing camera ready documents on destination printer, color model (RGB, CMYK, etc.), preprint color requirement, and process color separations.
- 13) Manipulate, enhance and produce digital photographs, graphics, or other art elements utilizing photographic and / or graphic editing software.

Oral Communications

- 14) Draft and edit two speeches: (1) to persuade, and (2) to inform. Incorporate planning and preparation to deliver speeches that adhere to the following expectations:
