

Selena Cunningham is the Human Resources Director for the Department of Environment and Conservation. In this role, she is responsible for all Human Resource Operations for the Department with employees located statewide. Ms. Cunningham is a career State employee having worked with several State departments throughout her career. She is dedicated to the employees she serves and the State of Tennessee.