

JACKSON ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

July 2015

The Jackson Archaeological Society will meet Tuesday, July 21st, 2015 at 6:00 pm at Gander Mountain – The Columns, 1523 Vann Drive, Jackson, Tennessee. The purpose of this Society is to learn more about past Native American cultures and the early historic period of Tennessee. Our meetings are scheduled for the third Tuesday of each month and are Free and open to the public. This month's program:

Mark Norton
who will present
Archaeology News

This month's program will feature several recent archaeological projects in Tennessee and other archaeology news from the region. One of the projects highlighted in this presentation was conducted by Dr. Kathryn Sikes at MTSU at the Clover Bottom mansion – specifically investigating the associated slave cabins. Interestingly, some of these structures are still standing, providing a rare glimpse into the past. Also included in this presentation will be a portion of Gary Barker's investigations at the Kellytown site – a late Mississippian period village on the Little Harpeth River.

See you Tuesday, Mark
