

External Affairs Internship Opportunities Summer 2013

The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation is currently looking for public affairs interns to work in the Office of External Affairs in Nashville, Memphis, Jackson, Knoxville, Chattanooga, Columbia, Johnson City and Cookeville. These internships will give the aspiring public affairs (communications, public relations, grassroots organization, and/or government relations) professional an opportunity to learn and be mentored in their field.

Undergraduate or graduate students in the following fields of study are encouraged to apply:

- Communications, journalism
- Public relations, marketing
- Public policy, public administration
- Business, organizational development

The Public Affairs Intern(s) will assist the Office of External Affairs' team with a number of projects, which may include (but not limited to):

- Policy research and analysis.
- Drafting internal and external communications such as press releases and blogs.
- Organizing public events.
- Outreach and assistance to targeted stakeholders.

The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation is a diverse and dynamic agency that serves our state by:

- Safeguarding the health and safety of Tennessee citizens from environmental hazards.
- Protecting and improving the quality of Tennessee's land, air and water.
- Managing the Tennessee State Parks system.

For more information or to apply, visit <http://tn.gov/environment/intern/>.