

AGENDA

AFFIRMATIVELY FURTHERING FAIR HOUSING

OCTOBER 18, 2016

TIME	TOPIC	SUMMARY	SPEAKER
9:00	Opening Remarks	Welcome and overview of the training's purpose and format, introduction of the speakers	Beverly Watts, Executive Director Tennessee Human Rights Commission
9:15	History of Related Laws and Policies	Exploration of relevant Fair Housing and Civil Rights laws, regulations, executive orders and fair housing infrastructure	Jeffrey Paul May Michael Mitchell
9:45	What and Why: Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing	How compliance can improve quality of life, participants' performance, local and state investments, and more!	Jeffrey Paul May Michael Mitchell
10:30	The AFFH Rule and Its Requirements	Deep dive into the AFFH rule, including its stipulations and requirements for related institutions and stakeholders	Jeffrey Paul May Michael Mitchell

BREAK

11:15	AFFH Rule Compliance	Discussion of best practices and guidelines for complying with the AFFH rule	Jeffrey Paul May Michael Mitchell
12:15	Q&A Session	Time for audience members to ask questions of the expert speakers	Jeffrey Paul May Michael Mitchell