Effective April 28, 2014, Public Chapter 844 of the 108th General Assembly amended T.C.A. § 49-5-413(d)(3) on the investigation of applicants for teaching or child care positions. The amended section enumerates offenses which preclude convicted individuals from coming in direct contact with school children and children in child care programs, or entering the grounds of a school or child care center when children are present. The amended section also specifies that "conviction" includes convictions for the same or similar offense in any jurisdiction, and convictions for the solicitation of, attempt to commit, conspiracy, or acting as an accessory to any such offenses.

This rule amendment adds the offenses in Public Chapter 844 to the list of those offenses for which, if convicted, the State Board of Education will be entitled to automatically revoke or suspend a license or deny an application for a license. In such cases, the educator will not be entitled to a hearing in the suspension, revocation, or denial of his/her license. This rule also amends the definition of "conviction" to reflect the language in Public Chapter 844.
