National fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose

FOR NEW PROVIDER APPLICANTS ONLY**

Dear Applicant,

Any business entity or individual who submits a new provider application to the Department of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (DIDD) must undergo the credentialing process which includes submission of a current national fingerprint-based criminal history record check. For this purpose, the following Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) are designed to guide in this process:

Before you obtain your fingerprint appointment, it is VERY IMPORTANT that you are aware of your privacy rights. Therefore, DIDD is providing you with a copy of the NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS document. This document is located on the DIDD website in the section titled Submitting a National Background Check to DIDD.

1. What type of national fingerprint-based criminal history record check (FCHRC) is required?
 - DIDD requires a current national FCHRC. The applicant is required to show proof of obtaining the national FCHRC. Please submit as proof a copy of your paid receipt along with the Provider Credentialing Application via email to DIDDProvider.Application@tn.gov.
2. For what positions or roles does your organization have to submit a current national FCHRC with a new provider application?
 - The following persons need to complete the check:
 - Chairperson of the Board (for non-profit agencies)
 - Owner(s)
 - Executive Director
3. Who has the authority to administer the national FCHRC?
 - The national FCHRC is administered by Tennessee Bureau of Investigations (TBI) or a licensed private investigative company or licensed private investigative individual, through www.identogo.com (see DIDD's instructions for obtaining background checks through www.identogo.com).
4. Who pays for the national FCHRC?
 - Each applicant is responsible for paying the cost of their own national FCHRC. DIDD does NOT reimburse applicants for the cost of their national FCHRC.
5. When should the applicant obtain the national FCHRC?
 - The applicant should obtain the national FCHRC no more than 60 calendar days prior to submission of the Provider Credentialing Application. A national FCHRC obtained more than 60 calendar days of the submission of the Provider Credentialing Application will NOT be accepted.

6. Who should receive the national FCHRC?
 - Once the applicant completes their national FCHRC from Tennessee Bureau of Investigations (TBI), or a licensed private investigative company or licensed private investigative individual, through www.indentogo.com, the results will be forwarded to DIDD.
7. How will DIDD obtain my national FCHRC?
 - Each required position noted in # 2 above completes the Volunteer and Employee Criminal History System (VECHS) form. The organization includes and submits in its DIDD New Provider application each person's VECHS and copy of paid receipt. The correctly completed VECHS form gives DIDD permission to obtain the person's national FCHRC report.
8. How is the VECHS form completed?
 - Page 1: the applicant completes the convicted question requirement on page 1.
 - Page 2: the applicant checks the box "Employee" and completes the remainder of that section.
