LOBBYING AGREEMENTS

Based on a review of the audit documentation provided by Mr. Holloway, he was a direct employee of the employer. The employer had no employment contract with the lobbyist employee. However, per statements of the lobbyist and review of his job description, it appears the terms of employment were within the statutes for lobbying activities including having no terms for contingency payments based on lobbying success.

FAMILY OR BUSINESS ARRANGEMENTS WITH PUBLIC OFFICIALS

TRAINING & FEES

Based on review of the Bureau of Ethics and Campaign Finance's lobbyist records, Mr. Holloway did not complete his required lobbyist training for the 2011 registration year. T.C.A. § 3-6-114(b) requires each registered lobbyist to complete an annual training course. The lobbyist completes the training online and prints a certificate of completion when done. The lobbyist provides a copy of the certificate to the Bureau of Ethics and Campaign Finance to verify compliance. Mr. Holloway did not have the certificate on file for 2011, and he was unable to provide documentation indicating the training was completed.

Based on review of the Bureau of Ethics and Campaign Finance's lobbyist records, Mr. Holloway paid all registration fees.
