

Positive Peers is an app specifically built for young people in the U.S., ages 13 to 34, who are living with HIV.

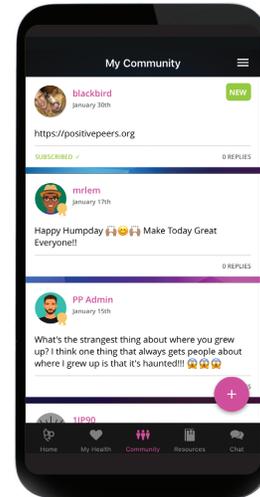

It's a confidential tool connecting young people with HIV to a private, stigma-free, supportive community.

Health management tools with medication & appointment reminders.

Accurate, easy-to-understand HIV health education information & community resources.

Local social networking in a community conversation & private chats.

SIGN UP TODAY

Receive an e-giftcard for completing periodic surveys.

Register online at positivepeers.org

For more information, contact us at positivepeers@metrohealth.org

GET SOCIAL:
@PositivePeers4U

