Request for Removal

Beechwood Hall was listed in the National Register of Historic Places on May 29, 1975 for its significance in Architecture, Politics, and Religion. In January 2019, the building was destroyed by a fire. A new house was built on the site. The property has lost the characteristics for which it was listed and therefore should be removed from the National Register of Historic Places.

Beechwood Hall destroyed in Wednesday blaze

From STAFF REPORTS Jan 18, 2019

Smoke was still rising on Friday afternoon from the remnants of Beechwood Hall after it was destroyed in a fire early Wednesday afternoon. All that remains of the Pre-Civil War home are its outer walls.
