Dear Friend(s):

We are preparing for the 9th National Suicide and the Black Church Conference, Wednesday and Thursday, June 12 – 13, 2019, at the University of Tennessee Health Science Center, 800 Madison Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee (In Mid-Town). The theme for this year's Conference is "STOP—LOOK--LISTEN!"

The many guests and presenters from across the country that will facilitate workshops and plenaries for this 2019 Conference will address factors that promote hopelessness; we will also hear testimonies from survivors of these losses and attempts. The information disseminated during this Conference will empower delegates to return to their places of worship and/or employment better able to identify those going through the dark night of the soul in need of emotional or mental health services; this translates into empowerment for churches, agencies, businesses and the communities. Suicide is a preventable, public health problem. This Conference educates and serves as one of the tools capable of saving lives and preventing occurrences of suicide.

Start making plans now to attend the 2019 Conference; we encourage you to register TODAY. To register early for the Conference, please complete the attached form and return it by email (thcsuicideconference@gmail.com); you can fax it to 901-370-5717 or simply mail the registration form TODAY. If you, your church, agency, business or group would like to attend, PLEASE make reservations as soon as possible. Additionally, there is still time to place an ad in the booklet; however, you must do so by May 1st. If your agency or church will be sending delegates, we need those to ensure all attendees have badges and certificates. Please call (901) 370-HOPE (4673) for more information.

FEEL FREE TO FORWARD THIS EMAIL TO YOUR CONTACTS & encourage them to REGISTER NOW.
