Special Winter Edition

2009

Mid December is here and most have begun to plan luncheons, department parties along with family gatherings. During this special time of year the Crime Statistics Unit would like to say "Thank You" for your hard work during the year. The TIBRS program is one of the best crime reporting programs in the nation due in large part to the timeless efforts of you, the contributing agencies.

CSU would like to wish all of you a safe and Happy Season along with a Happy New Year. New and exciting things are on the horizon for CSU and the TnCOP program in the coming year one of them being a new TBI website. Be looking for the email with a hyperlink to the new site. There will be a portion of the site dedicated to law enforcement requiring a password. We will notify you of the password.

We look forward to working with you in the new year.
