The Tennessee Public Charter School Commission (“Commission”) would like to acknowledge and appreciate the feedback and collaboration received from the Tennessee Department of Education, Commission-authorized schools, and other quality authorizers to develop this revised framework.

About the Performance Framework

This document outlines the comprehensive benchmarks by which charter schools authorized by the Commission will be measured and evaluated in alignment to the Commission’s mission. The framework addresses the academic, financial, and organizational benchmarks by which schools will be scored to indicate the overall success and health of the charter school. A charter school’s performance on these measures will be published in the annual report produced by the Commission.

SCHOOL PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK	3.700

Section I. Academic Performance

Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated (T.C.A) § 49-13-102, two of the purposes of a charter school are to improve learning for all students and to ensure that children have the opportunity to reach proficiency on state academic assessments. In addition, the law states that “[t]he performance-related provisions within a charter agreement shall be based on a performance framework that clearly sets forth the academic and organizational performance indicators, measures, and metrics that will guide the authorizer’s evaluation of each public charter school.”¹ For students, families, and the community, the main question that needs to be answered is: “Is this school a high-achieving school?” With increased school autonomy, a bedrock of charter school authorization, comes the expectation of high academic achievement and student growth. The following pages outline the measures by which a charter school’s academic performance will be evaluated for purposes of yearly monitoring, potential interventions and plans of correction, and renewal and revocation decisions. A school will be evaluated on each performance measure and will receive a rating for each measure as well as a composite score that encompasses the entire academic performance framework. The Commission’s Charter School Intervention Policy 3.400 lays out the possible interventions and sanctions for failure to meet the standards set forth in the performance framework.²

The Academic Performance framework is made up of four key areas, which are outlined below. Additional details and explanations around these areas are included in the pages that follow.

1. Student Outcomes (25%-35%)
2. Mission-Specific Goal (10%)
3. Comparative Performance (40%)
4. Overall TVAAS Composite Index (15%-25%)

² For example, the governing board of any school that receives a “Falls Far Below” rating in any category will receive a Notice of Concern detailing the areas of concern on the Performance Framework. Achievement of a rating of “Falls Far Below” in multiple areas or “Does Not Meet Standard” in a significant number of ratings will result in a Notice of Deficiency being issued to the school’s governing board and a Plan of Correction being developed. Additional information regarding possible interventions and sanctions, including charter revocation, are available in the Charter School Intervention Policy 3.400.

1a: Student Outcomes (25%-35%)

The Student Outcomes section of the Commission’s School Performance Framework aligns with the Tennessee Department of Education (TDOE)’s accountability framework. If the TDOE adjusts any indicators in future accountability protocols, the Commission will adjust the same within the performance framework such that this section will continue to align with the state’s accountability model.

Measure	Description	Falls Far Below Standard	Does Not Meet Standard	Meets Standard	Exceeds Standard	Total Weight
1a*	School academic performance, as measured by the Tennessee Department of Education	D	C	B	A	25%-35%

For schools in their first year with state assessment data, see 1b in the next section.*

Notes regarding the Student Outcomes Section:

- Minus grades for schools designated as “focus” schools will not influence the overall ratings category of the school. For example, a school receiving a B- will be designated as “Meets Standard.”
- For this indicator, a C letter grade qualifies as “Does Not Meet Standard.” However, a school can still achieve a meets standard for the academic section of the School Performance Framework if the school earns a “Meets Standard” on all other indicators and achieves a TVAAS 4 or 5.
- * The student outcomes and TVAAS sections have a range of weights due to re-allocation of weight for schools scoring a TVAAS 4 or 5. If a school meets standard at a TVAAS 3 or earns a TVAAS 1 or 2, the allocation of weights will be 35% for student outcomes and 15% for TVAAS. If a school earns a TVAAS 4, the allocation of weights will be 30% for student outcomes and 20% for TVAAS. If a school earns a TVAAS 5, the allocation of weights will be 25% student outcomes and 25% TVAAS. This is to reward schools for having higher growth scores.

In the event there is a pause of the state’s accountability system by the TDOE, the Commission shall reallocate the 25% weight of student outcomes equally to all other sections within the academic section of the framework. Schools will be held accountable to their chronic absenteeism rates and ELPA data in alignment with the thresholds in the table in 1b. Student Outcomes at 5% each within the student outcomes section, totaling 10%. The chart below demonstrates the reallocation of weight in the event of enacting the contingency plan in the absence of a letter grade designation:

1. b. Student Outcomes for New Schools (Applicable for schools with achievement data and without a letter grade) (25%-35%)

. If a school does not receive a letter grade and has state achievement data, the school will be evaluated in the following areas in student outcomes. The weight of the following areas makes up 25% - 35% of the final academic performance score, depending on the school’s TVAAS score as outlined under 1.a. Each of the below indicators’ scoring weights aim to align to the scoring weights used for each indicator in the state’s accountability framework.

1. Absolute Achievement: Absolute achievement will be measured by the percentage of students scoring “met or exceeded expectations” on the Tennessee state assessments in the subject areas of ELA, math, science, and social studies. The total scoring weight for absolute achievement is 45% with each subject area consisting of 11.25% of the total 45%. If a school is not being tested in a certain area, the total of 45% will be reallocated equally among the total tested subject areas.
2. Growth: Growth in achievement will be measured by TVAAS overall composite index for the one-year trend. The total scoring weight for growth is 35%.
3. Chronic Absenteeism: Chronic absenteeism is defined as the percent of students missing 10% or more of enrolled school days. The total scoring weight for chronic absenteeism is 10%.
4. English Language Proficiency Assessment (ELPA): ELPA will be measured by the percentage of students meeting or exceeding the growth standard based on prior English proficiency. The total scoring weight for ELPA is 10%.

*Note – if testing data is interrupted or unavailable, Commission staff may either hold items harmless depending on data availability or Commission staff will enact the contingency plan outlined in 1a: Student Outcomes and reallocate the weight for this section as noted in the provided table.

2: Mission-Specific Goal (10%)

Each school authorized by the Commission will define a mission-specific goal within their charter agreement to be evaluated within the School Performance Framework. See Appendix A for the school’s mission-specific goal.

Each mission-specific goal is unique and pre-determined in collaboration with Commission staff and approved by the Commission. The inclusion of this goal offers an opportunity:

1. For schools to showcase what makes them unique based on the model described within their charter application.
2. For elementary schools who may be missing state student outcomes data due to the majority of their students being in non-tested grade levels, this goal can track growth and achievement for students who do not take state testing through nationally normed assessments.
3. To include supplemental data for schools who are staggering their opening by grade level.
4. To capture additional important data aligned with their mission that schools believe are beneficial and are outside the scope of what is measured within the academic portion of the framework. This can include items such as ACT scores, nationally normed internal assessment data, and curriculum rubrics.

The school must adhere to the guidelines established by the Commission to develop the proposed mission-specific goal. The Commission will either approve the goal as is and incorporate it within the school’s accountability and reporting, or it will engage in further negotiations regarding the goal. If the school chooses to make changes to its mission-specific goal at any point in time during the tenure of the charter agreement, the school must amend the charter agreement to do so.

The following are guidelines for schools in the development of the mission-specific goal:

1. The proposed goal must be student-centered and outcome driven.
 - a. The goal must include student outcomes and not action steps, curriculum, or adult actions.
 - b. The goal must include quantitative data. This goal cannot be qualitative, including items such as survey data or student statements.
2. The proposed goal must include goals, predetermined metrics, and progress.
 - a. The goal must be aligned to the mission of the school as outlined within the charter application.
 - b. The goal must not include metrics or assessments already utilized within the performance framework such as TCAP/TNReady achievement scores, TVAAS, or chronic absenteeism.

TENNESSEE PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOL COMMISSION
SCHOOL PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK	3.700

- c. The goal must include pre-determined metrics to measure student success toward the mission. These metrics are not flexible and cannot change year over year to ensure comparison. Some metrics can include:
 - i. Nationally-normed internal assessment data (e.g., NWEA MAP)
 - ii. Aligned End of Course Assessments (not tied to state testing)
 - iii. ACT Scores/SAT Scores
 - iv. Student performance rubrics
 - v. Curriculum-based measurements or evaluations
- d. Schools must report on progress within the metrics toward the mission-specific goal. This must be demonstrated through aggregated (not raw) data and be clearly reported to the Commission. The school must report accurate data and determine whether or not they are meeting, exceeding, or not meeting their goal.

The mission-specific goal will be discussed with the school during site visits and during interim reviews. The mission-specific goal will be included within the annual reporting for the school which is public record. The mission-specific goal will also be considered in high-stakes decisions including intervention, renewal, and revocation. The school is responsible for reporting the pre-determined and aggregated data by the specified date within the charter agreement for site visit and annual reporting. Failure to report this data will result in the charter school receiving a “does not meet standard” for the mission-specific goal.

1. Comparison of charter performance to the resident district average allows for the evaluation of whether the charter school is providing a better option for students. Comparative achievement will be measured by evaluating the percentage of students who scored “met or exceeded expectations” on the state assessments at the charter school, as compared to the resident district average.
 - a. In grades 3-8, an average percent “met expectations” or “exceeded expectations” of all grades will be calculated for each tested subject.
 - i. This average will be calculated by taking the total number of students scoring “met or exceeded expectations” and dividing it by the total number of students who took the test in grades 3-8.
 - b. In high school, an average percent “met or exceeded expectations” will be calculated for End-of-Course (EOC) assessments in English I, and II, Algebra or Integrated Math I, Geometry or Integrated Math II, Algebra II or Integrated Math III, Biology, and U.S. History as aligns to what is outlined within the current TDOE accountability protocol to determine overall subject proficiency for a high school.
 - i. This average will be calculated by taking the total number of students scoring “met or exceeded expectations” and dividing it by the total number of students who took the tests, which will be grouped by subject.
 1. *If a school is not being tested in certain subject areas, the total weight will be reallocated equally among the total tested subject areas.

2. Enrollment percentages for each subgroup defined above will be included in the Commission’s annual reporting for each school. If the school’s student count for any individual subgroup is less than 8 students per grade level, or 30 for a fully built out school of four tested grade levels, schools will not be held accountable due to statistical validity. In this instance, the individual subgroup indicator(s) will be suppressed and marked on the framework as “”, and the school will be held harmless for the specific subgroup(s). The corresponding weight(s) will be reallocated to the overall school to district comparison (up to 20%).
 - a. Additionally, if resident district proficiency data for a particular subgroup falls below 1%, requiring suppression, the school will be compared to a district score of 0.9% for that subgroup for comparison purposes. If a school’s data is suppressed publicly below 5%, the school will still be held accountable to the comparison, however the actual score will be suppressed in public reporting.
 - b. If a school has a proficiency score of zero for a particular subgroup, they cannot meet the standard, even if it falls within three percent of the resident district. A school must have a proficiency score above zero percent to qualify for this indicator.

Measure	Description	Falls Far Below Standard	Does Not Meet Standard	Meets Standard	Exceeds Standard	Total Weight
4a	The Tennessee Value-Added Assessment System (TVAAS) measures student growth year over year, regardless of whether the student is proficient on the state assessment. In calculating a TVAAS score, a student’s performance is compared relative to the performance of his or her peers who have performed similarly on past assessments.	TVAAS Composite Score of 1	TVAAS Composite Score of 2	TVAAS Composite Score of 3	TVAAS Composite Score of 4 or 5	15%-25%*

Note – if a school does not have a TVAAS score, the weight will be reallocated evenly amongst the other indicators in the academic section.

* The student outcomes and TVAAS sections have a range of weights due to re-allocation of weight for schools scoring a TVAAS 4 or 5. If a school meets standard at a TVAAS 3 or scores a TVAAS 2 or 1, the allocation of weights will be 35% for student outcomes and 15% for TVAAS. If a school earns a TVAAS 4, the allocation of weights will be 30% for student outcomes and 20% for TVAAS. If a school earns a TVAAS 5, the allocation of weights will be 25% student outcomes and 25% TVAAS. This is to reward schools for having higher growth scores.

Section II. Financial Performance

In addition to academic performance, another important indicator of short-term and long-term success of charter schools is financial performance. Annually, a charter school will be rated on the following near term and sustainability indicators. When a school does not meet the standard on a measure of the Financial Framework, it becomes necessary for the Commission to seek more information. A rating of “Does Not Meet Standard” on a single measure is not necessarily an indication of financial distress, instead, it is an invitation for the Commission to understand the reason for the financial underperformance, assess the severity of the situation, and if necessary, determine an appropriate course of action or intervention. Any intervention action based on the school’s ratings received in financial performance will be dictated by Commission Policy 3.400 Charter School Intervention.

Financial performance metrics are calculated primarily by using the audited financial statements for each of the Commission’s schools, which are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as prescribed by the GASB. Consequently, the Statement of Net Position and Statement of Activities are presented in a consolidated manner with all schools operated under a single network. While the consolidated financial statements are utilized in the majority of the Financial Performance Framework for measuring the near term and sustainability measures of the charter school, the Commission will also consider each school’s financial position and hold it independently accountable.

Indicators and Measures:

- 1. Near Term Indicators:
 - a. Current Ratio
 - b. Unrestricted Days Cash
 - c. Enrollment Variance

SCHOOL PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK	3.700

Section III: Organizational Performance

A charter school’s performance on the organizational measures is a large piece of the overall evaluation of a charter school. Deficiencies or weaknesses in organizational performance may be an indicator of the overall health of the charter school.

When a school does not meet the standard on a measure of the Organizational Performance portion of the framework, it becomes necessary for the Commission to seek more information. A rating of “Does Not Meet Standard” on a single measure may indicate non-compliance but is not necessarily an indication of overall organizational distress. Instead, it is an invitation for the Commission to understand the reason for the organizational underperformance, assess the severity of the situation, and if necessary, determine an appropriate course of action or intervention in alignment with the Commission’s Charter School Intervention Policy – 3.400.³ Conversely, if shortcomings are identified and the school promptly comes into compliance within a reasonable timeframe, the Commission staff reserves the right to use professional discretion to determine if the school is eligible to receive a “Meets Standard” rating.

Appendix A - Mission Specific Goal

Tennessee Nature Academy

School’s Mission	The mission of Tennessee Nature Academy (TNA) is to cultivate happy and healthy young adults who are knowledgeable about the world, passionate about the outdoors, and motivated to do good work.
Student Profile Summary	Tennessee Nature Academy will serve middle and high school students in Nashville, TN. TNA will welcome 162 founding 5th and 6th grade students in Fall 2023 and will grow to serve 684 students in grades 5-12 by Fall 2029. Based on enrollment estimates from current middle schools in our community (e.g. recent data reported in the Antioch, Cane Ridge, and Overton school clusters), we expect that 42% of our students will identify as economically disadvantaged, 45% will identify as English language learners, and 12% will identify as students with disabilities.
Goal – Outcomes Driven	Students demonstrate mastery on performance tasks related to the mission of the school.
Goal’s Connection to Mission	Tennessee Nature Academy provides a nature-based, project-based program in grades 5-12 which supports students’ academic success and emphasizes college and career readiness. This approach to teaching and learning helps students master disciplinary, grade-level knowledge and skills, relate their learning to their own experiences, and participate in learning experiences that are tied to their community (which includes making relevant connections to nature). In addition to assessments like end-of-unit tests or end-of-course exams, Tennessee Nature Academy uses regular performance tasks to measure the effectiveness of our pedagogy.
Targets and Rationale	Tennessee Nature Academy assigns performance tasks throughout the year. At the end of the year, we measure progress relative to the mission-specific target by determining the percentage of students achieving mastery (that is, achieving a score of at least 70%) in each performance task, and then determining the average of these percentages across performance tasks. Please see the example below.

TNA then averages each grade level’s performance relative to the mission- specific goal target to determine whether our organization has achieved “Exceeds,” “Meets,” “Does Not Meet,” or “Falls Far Below” ratings. This is shown in the figure below.

Percentage of Students Achieving Mastery

Our targets and rationales for targets are as follows:

We believe that for more than 80% of our students to demonstrate mastery on regular performance tasks exceeds the target for our mission-specific goal.

	score of 70% or above) on performance task rubrics.
	Meets Between 70% and 80% of students demonstrate mastery (achieve a score of 70% or above) on performance task rubrics.	In TNA’s district (MNPS), a student must earn a score of 70% or above to achieve mastery (e.g. earn a passing grade). Accordingly, a score of 70% or above equates to mastery on TNA’s outcome assessments, which includes performance tasks. We believe that students are meeting the standards if they achieve mastery scores between 70% and 80% on performance tasks.
	Does Not Meet Between 50% and 69% of students demonstrate mastery (achieve a score of 70% or above) on performance task rubrics.	In TNA’s district, students earn a failing grade if they achieve a mastery score between 50% and 69%. Accordingly, a score between 50% and 69% indicates that students are not meeting standards on performance tasks.
	Falls Far Below 50% or fewer of students demonstrate mastery (achieve a score of 70% or above) on performance task rubrics.	In TNA’s district, students cannot be assigned a numeric grade below 50%. Accordingly, a score of 50% or below represents that students’ mastery falls far below what is expected on performance tasks.
Assessment Details	Performance tasks take place through student projects and could include formal written products, presentations, portfolios, and other artifacts of student work. Performance tasks occasionally require students to complete community-based field work or share their work with an audience. Performance tasks occur at least twice per year in each core academic and elective class (e.g. ELA, Math, Science, Social Studies, Art, Physical Education, Keyboarding, and Introduction to Agriscience). Examples of performance tasks could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students create a plan for a community garden based on the Community Farm at Mill Ridge and determine the fraction and area that each plant in each plot will take up. (Grade 5 Math) • Students create a poster presentation for a community symposium on conserving Tennessee's freshwater mussels. The poster presentation includes: 1. A description of the importance of Tennessee's mussels, 2. An explanation of a specific threat facing Tennessee's mussels, including how that threat was introduced and how it affects mussels, 3. A proposal for how Tennesseans might minimize or address that threat, and 4. Steps the audience can take to conserve Tennessee's freshwater mussels. (Grade 6 Science)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students write an informative problem-solution essay focused on their research about a solution that an innovator developed using design thinking to solve a critical problem. The essay explains the problem in detail, and then describes the process by which a solution was designed, tested, and revised. (Grade 6 ELA) • Students work in teams to create a model of an exhibit for an art or history museum on the civilization or topic in ancient world history of their choice. Before creating the model, students develop a concept design, schematic design, and final design. (Grade 6 Social Studies) • Students create a tempera painting that depicts an animal in its environment. In this task, students demonstrate their knowledge of foreground, middle-ground, and background and depict elements of the environment using dark, medium, and light tones. (Grade 5 Visual Arts) While the focus and format of performance tasks vary widely, performance tasks align to Tennessee Academic Standards, support the development of disciplinary or industry-related skills, and require engagement with the community. Tennessee Nature Academy’s general rubric is available below. The general rubric will be used to evaluate all performance tasks. When designing the performance task, the teacher (and/or leadership team member) will determine how the performance task 1) Includes and assesses the Tennessee Academic Standards, 2) Promotes engagement with the community and 3) Includes and assesses disciplinary and industry-related skills. While the details of each performance task will vary (by grade level, by subject area, etc.), they will be assessed according to the general rubric.
Results Summary	“Meets” or “Exceeds” outcomes on performance tasks indicates that students have mastered disciplinary, grade-level knowledge and skills appropriate to the task and have demonstrated their understanding in ways which are consistent with TNA’s approach to teaching and learning (e.g. nature-based and project-based pedagogies).

Mastery of the Tennessee Academic Standards	Engagement with the Community	Mastery of Disciplinary or Industry-Related Skills
Performance tasks assess the Tennessee Academic Standards. Some tasks may assess standards associated with one content area, while some interdisciplinary tasks may assess standards across different content areas.	Performance tasks require students to engage with the community when preparing or sharing their work. This engagement could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Completing field work or outdoor experiences needed for the task Collaborating with an expert or organization to complete the task Participating in opportunities to share the results of the task with an audience 	Performance tasks require students to practice disciplinary or industry-related skills that they will later use to meet their college and career goals. Examples of these skills include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Research skills Reading or communication skills Using tools or technology Collaboration and teamwork Time management
