Virtual Conference

Live & On-Demand (through Nov 13)

2020 Tennessee

Workers' Compensation Educational Conference

in association with the International Workers' Compensation Foundation, Inc.

Agenda

Eight 90-minute sessions scheduled during the week

- Mornings and afternoons on Monday, Wednesday and Friday
 - Monday and Wednesday morning sessions are extended by 30 minutes
 - Monday—for welcoming comments
 - Wednesday for the announcement of the Sue Ann Head Award Winner
- Afternoon sessions only on Tuesday and Thursday

Agenda

Unable to watch at the scheduled time?

- On Demand option is available through November 13
- Access all sessions via the Session Hall link from the conference website: tn.gov/workers-comp-conference

Session Hall

View sessions and earn CEUs live or on-demand until November 13.

✉ Use your unique access code from your registration email to access content.

➔ Go to Session Hall

You can interact with the presenters and fellow attendees

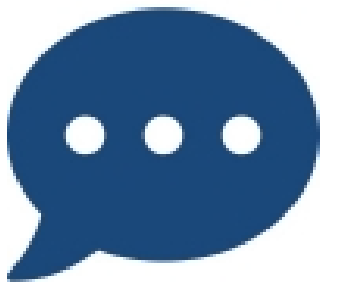

All sessions will end with a Q&A segment

- Approximately 15 minutes long
- You can continue to submit questions and comments afterwards via Slack.

Available whether you are watching Live or On Demand

Ask questions, share your thoughts or experiences:

- Via Q&A feature on Zoom
- Via email: tn.conferenceInfo@iwcf.us
- Via Slack aka the Conference Communications Hub (preferred)

Why is Slack preferred?

It will help simulate face-to-face discussion through “channels”

- Form groups of similar individuals
- Share something personal just to introduce yourself (networking)
 - #introductions channel
 - Where you work, what you do, your favorite _____
- See the questions that others have asked and provide input

- Provide comments on other people’s comments
- Share your thoughts to encourage discussion

And—it’s absolutely FREE!

To fully utilize Slack

Open the Slack app prior to each session.

The link is in the Session Hall:

The screenshot shows a webpage for the Tennessee State Government. At the top left is the TN logo and the text "Tennessee State Government". The main heading is "1 - Intro + 2030: Threats and Opportunities for WC Systems". Below this, there is an "About" section, a "Watch Session Live" section with a Zoom link, and a "View Session On-Demand" section. A yellow box highlights the Slack logo in the bottom left corner of the page content.
